

ACE Paper Submission Guidelines

- 1) The Association of Christian Economists invites all members to submit scholarly papers to the upcoming ASSA meeting. Submissions will be evaluated for inclusion as part of the two ACE sessions at the ASSA meetings. Submissions of individual papers and complete academic sessions and roundtables are invited.
- 2) The deadline for all submissions is Friday March 2, 2018
- 3) Submissions should address topics of interest to Christian economists. Such topics include but are not limited to: Trade, health, education, inequality, development, the economics of religion, and theology and economics.
- 4) Papers should be scholarly in nature, and should not have already appeared in print at the time of the ASSA meeting.
- 5) Members submitting complete sessions may include participants, paper presenters, and discussants who are not members of the Association. Session organizers should verify that potential non-member participants respect the goals and purposes of ACE.
- 6) Applicants should fill out the appropriate tab in Paper_Session_Submission_Form_Association_of_Christian_Economists.xlsx
- 7) Email the completed Excel form along with the academic paper(s) to Michael Anderson at andersonm@wlu.edu Please put “ACE 2019 submission” in the email subject line.
- 8) All submissions will be evaluated by the ACE Executive Committee (President, Vice President, and two committee members). Based upon topics submitted, the Committee may be expanded on an ad-hoc basis to provide expertise in evaluating papers and sessions.
- 9) Members will be notified by the President via email about the decision of the committee.
- 10) Feel free to email the President of ACE, Michael Anderson, with any questions about papers or sessions. andersonm@wlu.edu
